

Y/CON 8 : EUROPE'S BIGGEST HOMO-FICTIONS CONVENTION

Will take place on Saturday, November 7th and Sunday, November 8th, 2020
3 Boulevard Chastenet de Géry, Villejuif, France

AFTER A YEAR OF CONSIDERATION

You may know that in 2019, our team, which solely comprises volunteers, took a much needed break. This means there was no convention that year. Nonetheless, we took that time to welcome new members.

We also needed that time to find a bigger event location in order to accommodate the Y/CON to a larger public as well as offer more diverse content. In 2018, many of our most loyal exhibitors had to be put on a waitlist due to lack of available space and we hoped that finding a larger location could fix that.

Sadly, our researches were not quite successful: in order to access a larger location, Y/CON needs to multiply its budget by three.

CHANGES IN 2020

We want our convention to be affordable for everyone. However, we are aware that in order to keep Y/CON going, we have to significantly increase its fees.

We found our dream location for 2021. However, we rely on the Y/CON 8 to help us develop more partnerships and a wider variety of content and lineups.

After much discussion, we agreed that increasing our prices is the only way to keep our event, your event, durable. The updated entry and booth fees for 2020 will be communicated shortly.

Y/CON, 8TH EDITION

This year's event will take place in the same location, the Esselières, so we can pave the way for an assured and promising future.

There, you will find a rich and varied lineup, fun and creative activities, newer themes and subjects to tackle, as well as a great surprise we will soon reveal to you.

Access: Metro line 7, "Léo Lagrange" station
Bus line 131, "Ambroise Croizat" station
Private parking (300 available parking spaces)
